

I am writing to OPPOSE weakening of the the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. This law, in its present form, is absolutely necessary to ensure the prevention of unwanted and unsolicited calls to private residences. These calls are are an extreme nuisance and are an invasion of our personal privacy.